ABOUT THIS TRAIL

Produced in collaboration with Global Street Art this trail features new Amy Winehouse-inspired works by Captain Kris, Mr Cenz, Philth and Amara Por Dios. These new works form a trail with existing Amy-inspired works around Camden, including her statue in Stables Market and pieces by renowned street artists Pegasus and Bambi.

A devoted fan of Amy, Pegasus' famous works around London were the leading inspiration for this project. His new installation in our Welcome Gallery (admission free) is a fitting finale.

The funds for the trail were raised via Art Happens, the Art Fund's crowdfunding platform dedicated to the museum and gallery sector.

ABOUT THE ARTISTS

Amara Por Dios' work is inspired by her South American heritage and she is well-known for her use of vibrant colours, tribal-like faces and strong use of patterns.

Captain Kris describes himself as a 'genetically enhanced time-travelling super artist'. His energetic art is inspired by comic books, video games and cartoons.

Mr Cenz is a graffiti artist from London who has been on the scene since 1988. His unique, futuristic and funky portraits have been described as 'surrealist graffiti art for the soul'.

Pegasus is a Chicago-born artist who explores cultural icons with witty and insightful stencil work. He is perhaps best known for 'Fallen Angel', an Amy Winehouse work painted shortly after her death.

Philth is the alter ego of graphic designer Phill Blake. He uses various artistic styles including graffiti, stencilling and wheat-pasting to create stunning works.

Bambi is a mystery female street artist. A Central Saint Martins graduate, she has been an active street artist in London since 2010. She is also a famous singer.
