

9.30am—9.45am Sign in
9.45am—10am Welcome &amp; Introduction to the museum and seminar with Lisa Shames, Senior Learning Manager
10am—10.45am Session 1: The Importance of the Torah An introduction to the Torah, Talmud and Midrash writings and how these sources are used and interpreted across the streams in Judaism.
10.45am—11.30am Session 2: Q &amp; A with Rabbi Mendy Korner of Chabad Islington Understand what it means to be a Rabbi in an Orthodox Community. Rabbi Mendy will speak about his experience with the opportunity for a Q &amp; A.
11.30am –11.45am Break
11.45am—12.30pm Session 3: Q &amp; A with Rabbi Igor Zinkov of the Liberal Jewish Synagogue Understand what it means to be a Rabbi in an Liberal Community. Rabbi Igor will speak about his experience with the opportunity for a Q &amp; A.
12.30pm—1pm Lunch A vegetarian lunch will be provided. Please let us know of any dietary requirements.
1pm—1.45pm Session 4: Please Touch, Exploring Jewish Identity &amp; Gallery Visit Use objects to explore what it means to be Jewish across faith, culture, ethnicity. Discuss key exam questions and themes linked to Jewish identity.
1.45pm—2.30pm Session 5: Shabbat through the Streams Explore ways of teaching Shabbat to ensure all streams of Judaism are represented. Learn critical thinking techniques to use in the classroom.
2.30pm—2.45pm Break
2.45pm—3.30pm Session 6: Pikuach Nefesh &amp; Chosen People Learn more about these themes across the streams, and explore ways of teaching difficult concepts to diverse groups of students.
3.30—4pm Session 7: Answering Tricky Questions Learn our approach to responding to tricky questions and get the chance to ask us some of your own! You can also bring lesson plans and schemes of work for us to look through.