

Creative Writing

Look at this picture and pick out one person. What might they be thinking? What could have happened before the painting? What might happen afterwards? Write down a short story about that person.